HISTORY OF NATIONAL GIRL CHILD DAY

The government of India, in 2008, declared January 24 to be celebrated as the National Girl Child Day every year with the objective of raising the consciousness of the society towards the girl child so that she can be valued and respected.

National Girl Child Day is celebrated to raise awareness among people regarding inequalities, discrimination, exploitation faced by the girls in society. It is an initiative undertaken by the ministry of women and child development with an objective to provide support and opportunities to the girls of India.

OBJECTIVES

According to women and child development ministry, National Girl Child Day is meant to create awareness about the rights a girl owns and to give them opportunities like everyone else, and to support the girl child of the nation and remove gender-based biases.

CHIEF GUEST ADDRESS

She is motivated the students and given the awareness on Girl Child Exploitation in the society and also explained about their duties in the society. She is given some examples of brave women's who fought against the British Government like Zansi Rani Lakshmibai, Rani Abbakka, Kitturu Rani Chennamma and so many other brave women's .

OUTCOME OF THE PROGRAMME

National Girl Child Day is observed every year in India on January 24 to promote awareness about the rights of a girl child and to promote the importance of their education, health, and nutrition.
