Introduction:

Career Guidance and Placement Cell organized 3 days "Personality Development Program" for Second Year B.com, BBA, BCA, B.Sc and First Year M.Com Students. This program aimed to equip participants with essential skills to enhance their academic and professional prospects and the program was preceded by Lightning of the Lamp. The program was preceded by Prof. Sainatha Malligemadu Principal with his inputs to students about the enrichment of skills and dedication and the significance of development program. The Resource Person and the trainers gave the inputs about personality development skills like- Expectation setting, Ice breaking, Organizational Structure, SWOT Analysis, Corporate Jargons, Public Speaking, Presentation Skills, E-mail Etiquette, Grooming, Body language, Telephone Etiquette, Group Discussion, Personal Interview.

Programme Objectives:

- Self-awareness: Helping students understand their strengths, weaknesses, values, and beliefs. This fosters a clearer understanding of themselves and their goals.
- Confidence building: Building self-confidence and self-esteem through various exercises and feedback mechanisms. This helps students to believe in themselves and their abilities.
- Communication skills: Enhancing verbal and non-verbal communication skills, including public speaking, listening, and assertiveness. Effective communication is crucial for personal and professional success.
- Interpersonal skills: Developing the ability to build and maintain relationships, resolve conflicts, and work effectively in teams. These skills are essential for collaboration and leadership.
- Professionalism: Instilling professionalism in students by teaching them about workplace ethics, time management, and professional attire. This prepares them for the expectations of the professional world.

Proceedings:*1. Theory Session:

1. Communication Skills: Covered written and oral communication techniques, including report writing, email etiquette, and effective presentations.
2. Behavioral Skills: Explored topics like teamwork, time management, adaptability, and stress management.
3. Ethics and Equity: Discussed ethical dilemmas, diversity, inclusion, and social responsibility in various contexts.
4. Interpersonal Skills: Provided practical training in active listening, conflict resolution, and empathy building.
5. Public Speaking: Conducted debates, and public speaking exercises to improve participants' confidence and articulation.

PRINCIPAL

6. Management: Introduced fundamental management principles, leadership styles, and project management basics.

2. Question and Answer Session:

- a.) An interactive and informative Question and Answer session enabled students to gain the knowledge about personality development and time management.
- b.) Practical session in between which is Related communication skill and public speaking.

Programme Outcome:

The Personality development program yielded several positive outcomes:

- a. Enhanced Communication: Participants exhibited improved written and oral communication skills, benefiting their academic performance.
- b. Positive Behavioral Changes: Students demonstrated greater adaptability, teamwork, and stress management abilities.
- c. Ethical Awareness: Increased understanding of ethics, equity, and social responsibility was evident among participants.
- d. Stronger Interpersonal Skills: Improved conflict resolution, active listening, and empathy were observed.
- e. Confident Public Speakers: Many students reported increased self-confidence and improved public speaking abilities.
- f. Management Proficiency: Participants gained a foundational understanding of management principles and leadership skills.

Conclusion:

The Personality development program for UG and PG students has proven to be beneficial, with positive impacts on academic, professional, and personal growth. The students successfully equipped with essential skills in communication, behavioral, ethical, interpersonal, public speaking and management domains.
