1. INTRODUCTION:

Social justice is the view that everyone deserves equal economic, political and social rights and opportunities. Social workers aim to open the doors of access and opportunity for everyone, particularly those in greatest need. Social justice encompasses economic justice, equality and helps the downtrodden who have very little awareness about the existing laws

2. OBJECTIVE:

- Equal Rights and Opportunities: Ensuring that all individuals have equal access to basic human rights, opportunities, and resources, such as education, healthcare, housing, employment, and legal representation.
- Elimination of Discrimination: Working to eliminate all forms of discrimination, prejudice, and bias, and promoting a society that values diversity and inclusion.
- Redistribution of Wealth and Resources: Addressing economic disparities and promoting policies that aims to redistribute wealth and resources to reduce poverty and ensure a basic standard of living for all members of society.
- Ending Systemic Injustices: Challenging and dismantling systemic structures and practices that perpetuate inequality and marginalization, such as racism, sexism, and other forms of oppression.
- Advocating for Human Rights: Supporting and defending the human rights of all individuals, advocating for their protection, and holding accountable those who violate these rights.

3. PROCEEDINGS OF THE PROGRAM:

- Advocacy and Activism: Individuals and organizations engage in advocacy and activism to raise awareness about social justice issues, promote policy changes, and mobilize support for positive social change.
- Policy Reforms: Advocating for and implementing policy changes at local, regional, and national levels to address systemic inequalities and create a more just and inclusive society.
- Legal Actions: Initiating legal proceedings and litigation to challenge discriminatory practices, advocate for the rights of marginalized groups, and seek redress for injustices.
- Access to Education and Healthcare: Ensuring equal access to quality education and healthcare services for all

. Impact:

- Reduced Inequality: Social justice initiatives aim to address economic and social disparities, reducing the gap between privileged and marginalized groups. This can lead to a fairer distribution of resources and opportunities.
- Improved Human Rights: Social justice work often focuses on protecting and promoting human rights, leading to greater respect for the dignity and rights of all individuals within a society.
- Positive Economic Impact: A more equitable society can have positive economic effects, as increased access to education and opportunities can lead to a more skilled and productive workforce.
- Safer and More Just Communities: Addressing social injustices and inequalities can contribute to a safer society with reduced crime rates and a fairer legal system.

4. NO OF STUDENTS ATTENDED

- 151 students

5. OUTCOME

- Greater Equality: Social justice aims to reduce disparities and promote equality among individuals, ensuring that all members of society have access to the same opportunities and resources.
- Empowerment of Marginalized Groups: Social justice efforts empower marginalized groups to have a stronger voice in decision-making processes, leading to increased representation and influence in society.
- Safer and More Just Society: Addressing social injustices can contribute to a safer and fairer society with reduced crime rates and a justice system that treats everyone impartially.
- Promotion of Social Cohesion: Social justice efforts bring people together, promoting social cohesion and understanding among diverse populations.
