9. Programmed Details: Camp organized a Cattle Health Checkup Camp. The camp aimed to provide veterinary care and health checkups for cattle in the local community. The event was organized in Association with Animal Husbandry Department, Mysore, Dr. Divakar, Deputy Manager Mysore Dist., Milk Federation Mysore, and Dr Apoorva Veterinary Doctor; Devalapura took Part in treating cattle's health, which provided the necessary expertise and resources for the successful execution of the camp.

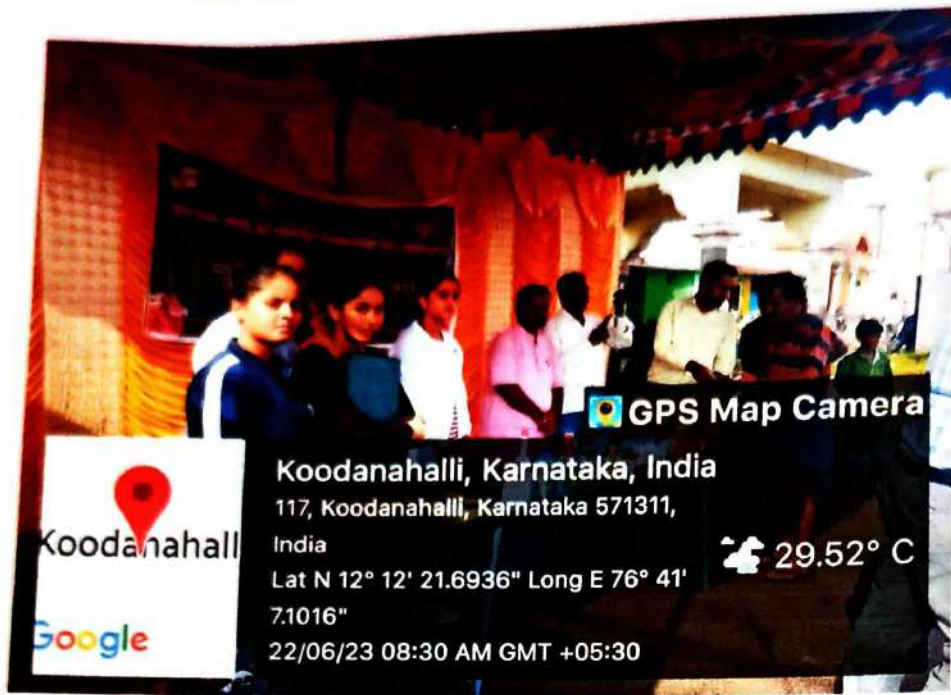

Activities:

1. Pre-camp Preparations: Before the camp, NSS volunteers conducted surveys and outreach programs to inform cattle owners about the upcoming health checkup camp. They communicated through local community leaders to maximize participation
2. Camp Setup: On the time of the camp, the venue was set up Near Milk Dairy the center of the village for Registration, examination, treatment, and counseling. Veterinary doctors and assistants were present to conduct the checkups.
3. Health Checkup and Treatment: As cattle owners brought their animals to the camp, each animal underwent a thorough health checkup. The veterinarians examined the cattle for any signs of illness, nutritional deficiencies, parasites, or injuries.
4. Medical Treatment: For minor health issues, on-the-spot medical treatment was provided. This included administering vaccinations, and providing medication for common ailments.

Awareness Talks: Alongside the checkup process, informative talks were given by the veterinarians and NSS volunteers. The talks covered topics such as proper nutrition, hygiene, and preventive measures to maintain cattle health.

10. Outcome/Conclusion: The Cattle Health Checkup Camp was a rich success. It saw active participation from the local community, and a significant number of cattle benefited from the free health checkups and treatments. The event provided valuable insights into the prevalent health issues faced by the cattle in the area, enabling the NSS and relevant authorities to plan future initiatives more effectively.
