1. INTRODUCTION: -

MMK & SDM Mahila Mahavidyalaya awareness jatha on the occasion of World Human Rights Day. World Human Rights Day, observed on December 10th every year, is a global celebration that emphasizes the fundamental rights and freedoms of every individual. It commemorates the adoption of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, highlighting the importance of promoting equality, justice, and dignity for all people around the world.

2. OBJECTIVE:

The objectives of conducting a jatha (rally) on World Human Rights Day are:

1. Raise Awareness: To increase awareness about human rights issues and their importance.
2. Advocate for Change: To call for action and address human rights concerns or violations.
3. Mobilize Support: To encourage public participation and engagement in promoting human rights.
4. Promote Unity: To foster unity and solidarity among participants in advocating for human rights.
5. Influence Policy: To influence policy and practice for better human rights protection and promotion.

Through these objectives, the jatha aims to create awareness, mobilize support, and drive positive changes in the promotion and protection of human rights.

3. PROCEEDINGS OF THE PROGRAM

- 1) Jatha Rally: The program commenced with a lively jatha (rally) featuring enthusiastic participants carrying banners and placards with messages advocating human rights and equality.
- 2) Panel Discussions: Expert-led panel discussions were conducted, delving into various aspects of human rights, including gender equality, freedom of expression, and social justice.
- 3) Street Theatre: Engaging Street theatre performances were held, depicting real-life scenarios related to human rights violations and the importance of standing up for human rights.
- 4) Human Rights Pledges: Attendees were invited to take a pledge to uphold and promote human rights in their daily lives, fostering a sense of responsibility and commitment.

5. OUTCOME

Organizing a jatha on World Human Rights Day for youth Red Cross volunteers holds immense significance. It not only raises awareness about human rights issues but also encourages active participation and engagement of young individuals in advocating for change. By mobilizing their collective energy and passion, we can empower the youth to become strong advocates for human rights and catalysts for positive social transformation.
