One Day Skill Development Program on
Basics of Bioinformatics
2019

DATE: 19/03/2019

PROGRAM COORDINATOR: Dr. Sunil Kumar CR

RESOURCE PERSON: Mr. Chandra Mohana

NUMBER OF PARTICIPANTS: 26 students of III BSc. BtBM

VENUE: Computer Science Laboratory

A One Day Skill Development Program on Basics of Bioinformatics was organized for students of III BSc. BtBM.

The extensive increase in life-science research data offers a variety of wonderful opportunities for the skilled scientific workforce, especially in the field of bioinformatics. The workshop was arranged to provide and introduction to Bioinformatics and train the basics of the technique. The students were taught how to search and generate amino acid sequences using the database NCBI (Protein BLAST).

26 students from III BSc. Bt.B.M were benefited by the event
